

Covenant Partners

An Aglow covenant partner is someone whose heart has been touched by the vision, plans and purposes on God's heart that are accomplished by Aglow International.

This is His ministry, raised up "for such a time as this". (Esther 4:14)

They realize that God's plan at this time for their life includes involvement in Aglow. A covenant partner is one who prays, gives, works and serves in Aglow as the Lord directs and as the Aglow vision provides opportunity to do so.

The European English Aglow is part of the Aglow family, with a specific call to the women of international communities in european cities who are isolated by language and cultural barriers.

The European English Aglow offers spiritual guidance, training and mentorship to scores of women at a dozen different locations scattered across continental Europe. As a Covenant Partner you offer ongoing support to help provide

- > travel and good communications
- > training opportunities for leaders
- > chapter planting and start-up
- > resource development
- > charitable projects

Why make a Covenant Partner commitment?

Our God is a God of commitment in relationship. He places individuals in relationships that involve commitment, such as families, friendships, communities and even nations. He is positioning people and ministries in their places of calling and anointing for the fulfillment of His purposes. If God has called you to Aglow, covenant partnership is simply an expression of your positive response to that call.
